ESTRELLA BRODY

The Superhuman Life of Gesar of Ling Harper Perennial
“Dien Chan - Dieu Khien Lieu Phap- Bui Quoc Chau” è una tecnica vietnamita nata nel 1980 nella città di Ho Chi Minh, grazie agli studi e agli esperimenti del prof. Bui Quoc Chau e della sua équipe di medici, ricercatori ed agopuntori. È un metodo che permette di recuperare o mantenere lo stato di buona salute senza ricorrere all’uso di medicine, bisturi ed aghi ma semplicemente massaggiando, premendo, picchiettando o riscaldando determinati punti del viso che riflettono le parti del corpo che sono in disfunzione o che hanno qualche squilibrio energetico. È una terapia naturale che si propone di ristabilire l’equilibrio energetico del corpo, stimolando una risposta del corpo stesso, eliminandone i disturbi. È una tecnica che permette a chiunque di prendere coscienza dello stato della propria salute e di intervenire fin dai primi sintomi di malattia, di sostenere il proprio corpo durante i trattamenti medici classici e di accelerare i tempi di recupero. Può essere utilizzata per prevenire le malattie con semplici auto-trattamenti che permettono la regolazione del sistema nervoso, della circolazione sanguigna e delle secrezioni interne, del sistema linfatico, delle funzioni epatiche, cardiache, o con auto-trattamenti che disintossicano, che rafforzano il sistema immunitario ..., può lenire i dolori, anche riguardanti l’apparato osteomuscolare e fermare le emorragie permettendo un primo intervento per i piccoli traumi; può essere di grande aiuto nella riabilitazione neuromuscolare per traumi derivanti da incidenti, ictus, trombosi, ecc., o per malattie degenerative come il Parkinson, l'Alzheimer, sclerosi e distrofie. In questa opera, sono spiegate le teorie di base della tecnica, il suo funzionamento, le tecniche di stimolazione e, soprattutto, gli schemi per curare oltre 200 disturbi più comuni. Il libro, a portata di mano, sarà un utile strumento per tutte le esigenze e per i primi soccorsi nei casi di disturbi invalidanti.

Discover a different side of Japanese swordsmanship through this fascinating treatise by a samurai doctor on how to maintain a healthy mind, body, and spiritual life Samurai are best known for taking life—but here is a samurai doctor's prescription for how to preserve life, and to make yours a long and healthy one. Unlike other samurai of his time, the samurai Kaibara Ekiken (1630–1714) was concerned less with swordsmanship than with how to maintain and nurture the healthy mind and body upon which martial techniques and philosophy depended. While serving as the chief medical doctor and healer to the Kuroda clan, he came to a holistic view of how the physical, mental, and spiritual lives of his patients were connected. Drawing from his medical practice, the principles of traditional Chinese medicine, and his life experience, Ekiken created this text as a guide to sustaining health and stamina from youth to old age. Ekiken's advice regarding moderation, food and drink, sleep, sexual activity, bathing, and therapeutic practices is still amazingly intuitive and appropriate nearly three hundred years after this book was written.

The Philosophy Of Natural Magic South Asia Books

Originally published in 1932, bringing together essays that appeared in previous years, and then reprinted in 1949 and 1971 with updates, this book, so far from its first appearance, is of a shocking topicality, such that it can still be used today as a manual for orientation in the Babelic "contemporary spiritualism" of the modern world and to avoid its traps.

Dien Chan - Vietnamese facial multi-reflexology " is a method born in 1980 in Ho Chi Minh city (Viet Nam), thanks to the studies and experiments of prof. Bui Quoc Chau and his collaborators. It is a natural therapy that aims to restore the energy balance of the body, stimulating a response from the latter, through reflex points. - It's simple - It's effective - It's cheap - It can also be done with fingers or knuckles - It can be done anytime and anywhere You can check the effectiveness of this technique through the different kinds of massage shown in this booklet, precisely in situations of acute discomfort.

Dien Chan - Pronto Soccorso Counter-Currents Publishing

Questo libro, unico nel suo genere, vuole trasmettere l'uso della Riflessologia Facciale rendendo accessibile questa straordinaria tecnica di autoterapia vietnamita anche al pubblico occidentale. L'autrice illustra le linee guida del metodo, in modo che chiunque possa applicarlo a se stesso e agli altri, diventando artefice del proprio benessere, mediante la semplice stimolazione di alcuni punti del volto che, riprogrammando il cervello, lo riporteranno sulla "frequenza" della salute. Spesso ciò che si manifesta come malattia è infatti l'effetto di un disagio più profondo che ha provocato in noi un blocco energetico, il quale potrà essere sciolto con pochi semplici gesti. La tecnica non ha controindicazioni e l'unica eventuale difficoltà, per i principianti, è la mancanza di fiducia in se stessi, che li induce a preferire che altri si occupino della loro salute, invece di assumersene in prima persona la responsabilità. Il Dien Chan Zone ripristinerà però tale fiducia, offrendo l'opportunità di constatare direttamente - e in tempo reale - i risultati positivi.

" Mr. Henry Morley, an eminent English scholar, in his Life of Cornelius Agrippa, makes these tributary statements: He secured the best honors attainable in art and arms; was acquainted with eight languages, being the master of six. His natural bent had been from early youth to a consideration of Divine Mysteries. To learn these and teach them to others had been at all times his chief ambition. He is distinguished among the learned for his cultivation of Occult Philosophy, upon which he has written a complete work..."

Schuon's articles on the relationship between Christianity and Islam have profound implications in the field of inter-religious dialogue. Several thought-provoking chapters shed light, from an inward dimension, upon the apparent outward contradictions between these two religions, notably in the field of moral divergences. This new edition is a fully revised translation of the original French edition and contains an extensive new Appendix with previously unpublished selections from his letters and other private writings.

Blaise de Vigenère's 'A Discovrse of Fire and Salt' is a captivating exploration of the elements of fire and salt as symbolic representations within early modern literature. Through a series of eloquently written essays, Vigenère delves into the symbolic meanings and cultural significance of fire and salt, drawing on literary works from the Renaissance period to shed light on their complex associations. His writing style is rich in imagery and metaphor, reminiscent of the allegorical tradition popular during his time. This book provides valuable insights into the way these elements were used by writers as powerful symbols to convey deeper truths about humanity and the world. Vigenère's meticulous analysis and scholarly approach make 'A Discovrse of Fire and Salt' a must-read for those interested in literary symbolism and early modern literature. Drawing on his own experiences and knowledge of the literary trends of his time, Vigenère brings a unique perspective to the study of fire and salt in literature, making this book a valuable contribution to the field. Mandala Inner Traditions

Description: Time and eternity are concepts with which every one is familiar; the former because it reserves as a unit of measurement and enables the preparation of table of days, weeks, months, years and so on, while the latter is usually associated with the idea of everlasting. If one thinks more deeply, it will be seen that time which appears to be measurable is beyond measurement and nothing is everlasting. Save the supreme principle that guides life, there is nothing which is immeasurable and external. Thus time and eternity, being associated with the supreme principle, attracted the attention of great religious thinkers. Here in this book, Ananda K.

Coomaraswamy has dealt with these two concepts as discussed by Hindu, Buddhist, Greek, Christian and Islamic Philosophers.
