«Hybrid qualifications» (HQ) may be seen as an interesting approach to tackle challenges associated with the European Qualifications Framework

(EQF). They serve «two masters», i.e. by producing skills for the labour market and enabling individuals to progress to higher education. The book assembles articles by researchers from Switzerland, the Netherlands, France, Australia, Canada, Scotland, England, Denmark, Austria and Germany.

Billie is forced to leave the only home she's ever known when her mother decides they should move to a new house in a small town. Musty furniture and odd belongings fill the old, dilapidated building, the ghostly remains of its previous tenants - including two small glass figures, one boy and one girl. The neighbours and local community are hiding something, Billie can tell - a secret about the house, a secret of its past. Then Billie notices that the glass figures have moved when the house was empty. Soon after, a tiny handprint appears on a dusty table - the handprint of a small child. Billie is certain that they are being haunted. But her mother thinks Billie is making it up. With the help of her new friend Aladdin, Billie desperately tries to uncover the house's dark, tragic history . . . leading her closer to the chilling truth.

Wisdom involves realizing what is of value to oneself and others and a genuine desire to share the knowledge in the pursuit of happiness and well-being. Wisdom may be gleaned from many sources including observing the behaviour of dogs (Canis lupus familiaris also known as Canis domesticus). Well cared for, trained and socialized dogs tend to display a positive disposition towards humans, other dogs and animals. During these encounters we can learn many valuable lessons from them as they can from us. A selection of over one hundred and fifty photographic images capturing the essence of day-to-day interactions between humans, dogs and other animals provide the basis for inspirational, motivational, comic, strategic and poignant quotes that have the potential to challenge and motivate us including at times providing the impetus to pursue our aspirations... "One of the most enriching life experiences includes the bond that develops between a human and a dog." -Pia Dowling

Sustainable Thinking

In a future where the Population Police enforce the law limiting a family to only two children, Luke, an illegal third child, has lived all his twelve years in isolation and fear on his family's farm in this start to the Shadow Children series from Margaret Peterson Haddix. Luke has never been to school. He's never had a birthday party, or gone to a friend's house for an overnight. In fact, Luke has never had a friend. Luke is one of the shadow children, a third child forbidden by the Population Police. He's lived his entire life in hiding, and now, with a new housing development replacing the woods next to his family's farm, he is no longer even allowed to go outside. Then, one day Luke sees a girl's face in the window of a house where he knows two other children already live. Finally, he's met a shadow child like himself. Jen is willing to risk everything to come out of the shadows—does Luke dare to become involved in her dangerous plan? Can he afford not to?

The Picture of Health

"In his satirically humorous society novel "Frau Jenny Treibel", which was published in 1892, Fontane unmasked the main characters in their selfish intrigues clearly enough as sentimental, conceited or downright pragmatic. Nevertheless, one can smile with sympathy towards the characters who come to such refreshing conclusions as: "Money is nonsense."--Goodreads
