'A wonderful Christmas love story, I absolutely loved this book... Hilarious and fun, I found myself laughing out loud several times... I could not put this book down.' Goodreads Reviewer ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ Nina Bailey loves Christmas. Except this year she doesn't. Because it turns out that her husband-to-be has been cheating on her - and her beautiful wedding ceremony in the snow is cancelled. She's not really in the mood to be jolly, sing carols, or go anywhere near gingerbread men - in fact, what Nina wants is to avoid the whole thing. So she's come to stay at her Aunt Dolly's cosy café to nurse her broken heart. Nina is determined to get through Christmas with no tinsel, no fuss - and definitely no flirting. So when she arrives and meets infuriatingly handsome Ryan Sadler, with his gorgeous forest-green eyes, she is not best pleased. And when Nina overhears him making fun of her, she is furious. (There might have been an incident with a koala onesie and a spilled bottle of milk, but that really wasn't her fault!) So despite the spark between them, and the fact that he can whip up a fabulous dinner faster than she can say Michelin star, romance and Christmas are off the menu this year. Unfortunately, Aunt Dolly hasn't quite got the message, going to great lengths to provide a proper British Christmas for her beloved niece: a true home away from home. With sparkling lights adorning every wall and a tree to equal the Rockefeller Center's and, yes, mistletoe above every doorway, can Nina resist the magic of Christmas - and stick to her no-romance rule? This Halloween, lose your heart in Hillingham Hollow... Welcome to Hillingham Hollow, the wholesome Texas suburb where romance abounds and real magic is rumored to be in the air. As a teen, Clea starred on reality TV with pop star London Lange. She'd thought they were in love, but when the show ended, he left town and never returned. Could a magical Halloween reunion spell their second chance?
Book 4: I'll Be Home for Halloween When Clea was fifteen, she dated a pop star. Not because she was a star herself, but because her family signed on to appear on reality television with a famous boy band. For most of Clea's sophomore year, one of the boys, seventeen-year-old London Lange, lived in her attic. The handsome and charming singer ate meals with her, rode to school with her, and eventually pretended to be her boyfriend in front of the cameras. As awkward as all of that could be at times, it was nothing compared to the most horrible thing London did while he was in town. He stole—and then broke—Clea's heart. Now Clea is older and wiser, and she's done her best to move on from the past and from the show. She's keeping a low profile, focusing on her budding career as a journalist, and, for the most part, doing fine. She still thinks about London. A lot. But she hopes someday she'll learn how to let him go because chances are, she'll never see him again. Or will she? During one special, supposedly enchanted, Halloween weekend, Clea gets her secret wish and runs into London on the street. He looks almost the same, and yet no one else seems to recognize him. While his anonymity bewilders Clea, she has more pressing concerns at the moment, like getting to the bottom of why London is suddenly back in Hillingham Hollow. And figuring out just what happened when he took off years ago. Why did he lie and break his promises to her? Why did he crush her heart? And while a part of Clea is afraid to ask, she can't help also wondering...after everything that's gone on between the two of them, can they ever have a relationship again? A real one this time? Does London even want one? The avalanche of questions twists Clea's mind and heart into knots, all the more so when she begins to suspect that the answers might involve something...well, not quite of this world. Something supernatural... Content advisory for Book 4: I'll Be Home for Halloween: sexual references, sensual kissing
