This book features a complete list of members of the prestigious Porcellian Club at Harvard University, one of the oldest social and literary clubs in the country. Founded in 1791, the Porcellian Club has been a hub of intellectual, social, and political activity for generations of Harvard students. The book provides valuable insights into the club's history, and its roster of distinguished alumni, which includes US Presidents, Supreme Court justices, and numerous other prominent figures in American history. A must-read for Harvard alumni or anyone interested in the history of higher education in America.
